TD Waterhouse Active Trader – take your investing to the next level

When you're trading with the customizable TD Waterhouse Active Trader® platform, you have more access and more information, faster than ever before.

- 1 Stay on top of the markets with streaming real-time quotes via multiple watch lists.
- 2 Fast point-and-click order entry and direct market access for Canadian and U.S. equities and options.
- 3 Move with the markets by monitoring trends using customizable streaming technical charts.
- 4 Stay in control with real-time account updates and live profit and loss summaries.
- 5 Trade options like a professional with streaming real-time option chains and access to our sophisticated auto routing technology providing fast and reliable trade execution.

As an active trader, you need to move when the markets move. TD Waterhouse Active Trader gives you the speed, information, flexibility and service you need to do it faster.

Simply download the Active Trader software, customize it to your own preferences and start trading right away.

Performance – Active Trader gives you point-and-click trading in Canadian and U.S. equities and options, with direct-to-market access to all major North American exchanges and various ECNs. You can choose where to have your order executed or you can simply let our advanced order routing system automatically route your orders for the best executions.

Information – You'll receive real-time information on your buying power, positions and profit and loss status, so you'll always know where you stand. You can also access real-time streaming market data, advanced technical charting, Level I and II quotes, and market news to help you make informed investment decisions.

Flexibility – Choose TD Waterhouse Active Trader or TD Waterhouse Active Trader Plus® to suit your personal trading needs. Both versions of the platform come with TD Waterhouse Active Trader Web® so you can access the markets and your account from wherever you have Internet service.

Active Trader works in tandem with WebBroker®¹, our Internet brokerage service. Simply toggle between the two platforms to access a full range of investments and research.

Service – You will also be a President's Account™ member. This premium brokerage account offers you access to additional benefits such as preferred interest rates on credit and debit balances, no administration fee on your Self-Directed RSP, RIF or RESP account, priority access to a team of dedicated Investment Representatives, 24 hours a day, seven days a week, and more.

Choose the TD Waterhouse Active Trader platform that's right for you

TD Waterhouse Active Trader is designed to meet the needs of active traders. Active Trader Plus adds multiple order entry tickets, additional simultaneous streaming data charts, dome trading and basket trading for those active traders seeking more sophisticated trading tools. Whichever you choose, you'll receive access to Active Trader Web at no extra charge so you can stay in touch with the markets and your account from wherever you have Internet service.
