

Private Giving Foundation Board of Directors

David J. Thomson, Chair

David J. Thomson contributes considerable business acumen and leadership experience from his role as President of Great West Life Properties (1988-2004), where he managed a real estate and mortgage portfolio of $1.2B. Prior to that role he developed a series of large projects in major North American centres as Executive Vice President for Oxford Development Group. He holds an MBA from the University of Western Ontario, and a BA from the University of Alberta. David developed extensive experience in political affairs based on his role as Special Assistant to Prime Minister Trudeau 1968-1972, and as Executive Assistant to Hon. JJ Greene Minister of Agriculture 1967-1968.

Bob Gorman

Bob Gorman joined TD Asset Management in 1987 and was co-founder of the TD Family of Mutual Funds. In 1991, he established what is now TD Private Investment Counsel, which has become Canada's largest manager of private portfolios, with $12 billion under management, and industry leader in applying technology to the investment process.

Bob Gorman

Today, as Chief Portfolio Strategist of TD Waterhouse, which encompasses Private Investment Counsel, Private Trust, Private Investment Advice and Discount Brokerage, Bob is frequently called upon by the national media for market analysis and commentary.

Bob holds an MBA from the Ivey Business School and is a Chartered Financial Analyst.

Jane Marshall

Jane Marshall is the Executive Vice President of Loblaw Properties Limited, a wholly owned subsidiary of Loblaw Companies Limited, Canada's largest food distributor with annual sales of $29 billion. Jane joined the company in 1993, initially to reposition the real estate portfolio from leased to owned. In 1998, the company acquired Provigo Distribution Inc. and Jane was named Executive Vice President for Eastern Canada, managing a capital program approaching $1 billion a year and a team of highly skilled real estate and construction experts.

Jane Marshall

Jane is a former Director of the Children's Aid Foundation and she still continues to fundraise every year in order to execute a successful Children's Christmas Party. Most recently she co-founded a home to support individuals living with mental illness.

Prior to joining Loblaws, Jane worked for a private real estate developer and for local government. She has a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Toronto.

Sam Hirsch

Sam Hirsch has spent many years as a multi franchise owner of Shoppers Drug Mart stores in Toronto and has also held senior executive positions within two prominent retail chains. He has served as president of the Metropolitan Toronto Pharmacy Association and as the executive director of the Shoppers Drug Mart/Pharmaprix Life Foundation. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Pharmacy from the University of Toronto. He has also received awards from the Ontario Pharmacists' Association and the University of Toronto for outstanding voluntary service.
